

jenaministries – Part 5 Bible Stories – Bible Study Worksheet

D) Daniel and the Lions Den – Bible Study Worksheet

Read: Part 5 #4) Daniel and the Lions Den

1. The administrators searched vigorously to find fault in Daniel, but could not find any fault in him. If people were to try and find fault in you, what would they find? Is there any area in your life that you (with God's help) could improve? Or need to improve? How do you think people would view your life?

---

---

---

---

---

2. Daniel told the king that God had sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths. Do you think God sends angels to help us now in these times? Do you believe God has sent angels to help you when you desperately needed it?

---

---

---

---

---

3. Daniel was living in a land that did not worship his God, yet that did not stop him from praying every day and doing what is right before the Lord. Even when it meant that he could face the horrific lions' den. How far are you willing to go for the Lord? Are you willing to face persecution? Even if the persecution was severe?

---

---

---

---

---

jenaministries – Part 5 Bible Stories

4. Daniel and the Lions Den

Daniel was an Israelite who was exiled to Babylon. He was very smart and honest. God gave Daniel the ability to interpret dreams and he made favor with the kings of Babylon. Darius appointed three administrators to be over 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom. Daniel was one of the administrators (Scriptures 1. Daniel Appointed Administrator by Darius Daniel 6:1-2).

Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom. This made the administrators and satraps very jealous and angry. So they tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, (Scriptures 2. The Plot Against Daniel Daniel 6:3-9) but they could not find any fault in him. They knew Daniel was very devoted to his God, so they needed to do something against his God.

They managed to talk the king into writing a decree that if anyone prays to any god or human being other than the King in the next thirty days, shall be thrown into the lions' den. The decree was put in writing and published so it couldn't be altered or repealed.

When Daniel heard of this decree, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed (Scriptures 3. Daniel Prayed to God for Help Daniel 6:10-11), praising God asking God for help.

The men saw him praying and they went right to the king to turn him in. The king was very distressed when he heard this for he loved Daniel. It took the men all day to convince the king that Daniel must be thrown in the lions' den (Scriptures 4. Daniel Thrown into the Lions' Den Daniel 6:12-18). The king had to finally agree and ordered Daniel to be thrown in the lion's den. He was so upset by this that he didn't have any entertainment or eat or sleep that entire evening.

So Daniel was thrown in the lion's den early that evening. At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den. He called to Daniel, and Daniel answered saying that his God sent an angel, and shut the mouths of the lions (Scriptures 5 God Shut Lions' Mouths Daniel 6:19-22). The lions had not hurt him, because he was found innocent in his sight.

The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. He ordered the men who had falsely accused Daniel to be thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

Then the king issued a decree (Scriptures 6 New Decree to Fear and Reverence the God of Daniel Daniel 6:23-28) that in every part of his kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel. For he is the living God and he endures forever; his kingdom will not be destroyed, his dominion will never end. He rescues and he saves; he performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.

So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

God used Daniel to spread the news about his power and dominion. Through this new decree, many people heard about Daniel's God and his saving grace. And many people feared and revered God.

jenaministries – Part 5 Bible Stories      4. Daniel and the Lions Den

Scriptures 1. Daniel Appointed Administrator by Darius

Daniel 6:1-2 It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom, with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. The satraps were made accountable to them so that the king might not suffer loss.

Scriptures 2. The Plot Against Daniel

Daniel 6:3-9 Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom. At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent. Finally these men said, “We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God.” So these administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and said: “May King Darius live forever! The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or human being during the next thirty days, except to you, Your Majesty, shall be thrown into the lions’ den. Now, Your Majesty, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered—in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.” So King Darius put the decree in writing.

Scriptures 3. Daniel Prayed to God for Help

Daniel 6:10-11 Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had done before. Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.

Scriptures 4. Daniel Thrown into the Lions’ Den

Daniel 6:12-18 So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: “Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or human being except to you, Your Majesty, would be thrown into the lions’ den?” The king answered, “The decree stands—in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians,

jenaministries – Part 5 Bible Stories      4. Daniel and the Lions Den

Scriptures 4. Daniel Thrown into the Lions' Den - continued

which cannot be repealed.” Then they said to the king, “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, Your Majesty, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day.” When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed; he was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him. Then the men went as a group to King Darius and said to him, “Remember, Your Majesty, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed.” So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!” A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation might not be changed. Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating and without any entertainment being brought to him. And he could not sleep.

Scriptures 5. God Shut Lions' Mouths

Daniel 6:19-22 At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den. When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?” Daniel answered, “May the king live forever! My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, Your Majesty.”

Scriptures 6. New Decree to Fear and Reverence the God of Daniel

Daniel 6:23-28 The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones. Then King Darius wrote to all the nations and peoples of every language in all the earth: “May you prosper greatly! “I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel. “For he is the living God and he endures forever; his kingdom will not be destroyed, his dominion will never end. He rescues and he saves; he performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.” So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.