

4. Praying with Scriptures Matthew 6:9-13

Matthew 6:9-13 (NIV) “This, then, is how you should pray: “ ‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,

My father God in Heaven. You are my Lord, my counselor, my friend, and my savior. You are the beginning and the end. Your mighty hand created all things.

your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

May your will be done in my life. Please help me to follow only you and make the path clear. Give me strength, humbleness, and wisdom to serve you.

Give us today our daily bread.

Thank you for hearing my prayers. I pray for my loved ones and my enemies. Lord please bring healings, protection, and salvation.

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Please forgive me for all my sins, big and small. Help me to forgive those that have sinned against me and hurt me. I need your help to fully do that.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

May I always walk on the path that you put before me. Give me strength against strongholds and addictions that try to pull me away. Deliver me from anything that separates me from you.

In the wonderful name of Jesus I pray. Amen.
