

5. Praying with Scriptures Deuteronomy 32:3-4

Deuteronomy 32:3-4 (NIV) I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

I will proclaim the name of the LORD.

May my actions and words always proclaim you as my Lord. I proclaim right now that you, Jesus, are my God and Lord over my life.

Oh, praise the greatness of our God!

You are the greatest and highest power. King of kings and Lord of Lords. You are exalted above all others. Only you are worthy of highest praise. I praise you alone.

He is the Rock,

You are the firm foundation. Always there holding everyone and everything up. There is nothing that can overcome you. I can always count on you. You are my rock.

his works are perfect,

I never have to be afraid you will steer me wrong. Everything you do is perfect. Nothing is a surprise for you. You have no constraints. You are all knowing.

and all his ways are just.

Even though you are so much better than everyone else, you still are just. Life may seem unfair at times, but I can always count on you to be fair and just. You never go against your word.

A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

You are sinless. Without blemish. You never have done an evil or wrong thing. I can always count on you to be truthful and faithful.

How blessed we are to have a faithful, devoted, upright God looking after us. No matter what, I praise you for who you are.

It is an honor to pray in that beautiful name of Jesus. Amen.
