

Haven't Been An Easy One

(verse 1)

Seems like just yesterday, such a short time ago.
I walked into this church and felt something quite unusual.
Now it is clear to me, it was you who brought me there.
And how through out my life, your hand has been at work.

(chorus)

(And I) haven't been an easy one, and I don't deserve a thing.
But still you take the time to be there and to teach.
No I haven't been an easy one, but you know just what I need.
Oh Lord, you're changing me.

(verse 2)

I have found myself doing things, absolutely amazing.
Pray for help and mercy for one I consider an enemy.
I look for guidance and strength from someone other than myself.
I even give my life to the one who gave it to me first.

(to chorus) Yes I

(Bridge)

Oh yes I know, I still have a long way to go.
And yes I know, I'm only beginning to grow.
I need you to strengthen my soul.
And be with me all the way down the road,

(to chorus) Cause I