

Don't You Feel

(verse 1)

Yes I know you've heard this before. The last thing you want is more.
But I can't help but ask myself; do you know what you're looking for?
Seems no matter where you go, or what new thing you try.
Never seems to go just right, and nothing truly satisfies.

(chorus)

Don't you feel something missing? An empty hole deep inside.
A need for more to your life. Don't you feel?
Don't you feel something missing?
(last) Don't you feel? Don't you feel something missing?

(verse 2)

Yes I know I've been there before. But now I cannot ignore, the need for divine fulfillment. And how lost I am without it.
Can't explain why it's so, or why my longing grows.
But I know it's good and right. And I'm so glad it's in my life.

(to chorus)

(Bridge)

There's just something about praising. Sharing deep dreams and fears.
A faithful hand through the tears. Don't you feel that missing?

(to chorus)
