

I Will

(verse 1)

When I start feeling down and lonely. When it feels like there is no end.
When the burdens are so heavy, they start to break all faithfulness.
I will turn to what forever holds. I'll remember prophecies told.
I will imagine being there. I will go on without despair.

(chorus)

I will walk on the streets of golden.
I will never hurt again.
I will live in the mist of righteousness.
Everlasting joy within.
Singing Halleluhah, Halleluhah, Halleluhah.
Highest praise to him.
(last) Highest praise to him. Everlasting joy within.

(verse 2)

When I think I just cannot go on. When all hope seems to fade away.
When I need something to make me strong. When I need to build my faith.
I will keep my eyes on what awaits. I will look towards heaven's gate.
I will imagine walking through, to what waits for me and you.

(to chorus)

(Bridge)

To him who holds the key. To him who paid the price for me.
With him who sets me free.

(to chorus)
